

I am writing to the FCC to urge it to support diversity in local markets. It is imperative that one or two corporations within a market not be able to dominate a market. Diversity in ideas is imperative. With that in mind I urge the FCC to make a commitment to expanding FCC broadcasting licenses to more companies and organizations.